

Hello Boys and Girls

Santa Claus here at the North Pole. You have all been exceptionally good this year. You are all on my GOOD list.

Please be assured that I will be with you on Christmas Eve, bringing your presents, as usual. There have been no cases of coronavirus at the North Pole. I have clearance from every country to go all over the world, very safely.

I'm sure you will understand when I tell you that I will not have time to visit Dalkey Castle and Dalkey town this year, before Christmas, as I usually do.

Now, I need to dash back to work. I will definitely be with you all on Christmas Eve. You will be asleep, so you won't see me. Please leave out a little drink for me, a carrot for Rudolf and a small hand sanitiser.

Love and best wishes,

Santa Claus at the North Pole
